

Collaborating on Carbon Commitments

A training ground for Gaining Ground

October 19, 2009 Vancouver Convention & Exhibition Centre

The Community Energy Association (CEA), Columbia Institute and BC Healthy Communities are partnering to offer a comprehensive workshop for local governments and their potential public sector carbon neutral partners. This intensive, one-day event leads up to the Gaining Ground conference, and focuses on how to build resilient communities through collaboration on energy solutions.

Program

Carbon Neutral Collaboration How can public institutions work together to facilitate more efficient, clean energy solutions?

The "Carbon Neutral Kootenays Project"
Jim Gustafson, CAO, RD of Central Kootenay
District Heating Pre-feasibility Study
Councillor Jordan Bateman, Township of Langley
Designing a New, Green School in Richmond SD
Eric Thorleifson, Manager of Facilities

Communicating to Build Commitment Tips for successful engagement and approaches to responding to resistance.

Kerri Klein, BC Health Communities
Dale Littlejohn, Community Energy Association

Lunch Keynote International discussions on climate change and carbon emissions targets.

David Cadman - International Council for Local Environmental Initiatives

Putting it All Together An interactive workshop exploring opportunities for collaboration and action.

Who should attend

Elected and Appointed officials and staff with responsibility for carbon neutral operations from:

- First Nations
- Local Governments
- School Districts
- Provincial Health Authorities

Registration

Location: Meeting Room 9, East Wing,
Vancouver Trade and Convention Centre
Canada Place Way, Vancouver, BC
V6C 0C3

Time: 9am to 4pm.

Fee: $95.00

For more information and to register:

<http://www.civicgovernance.ca/node/702>

In association with Community Energy Association, in partnership with

Connecting communities,
energy and sustainability

